

Heartsaver First Aid AED provides a framework for learning basic skills that may save a life or prevent further injury. It's a classroom, video-based, instructor-led course that teaches the participants critical skills needed to respond, manage and conduct first aid during injuries, emergency situation in the first few minutes until emergency services (EMS) arrives.

In this course, candidates will learn skills in such way to treat bleeding, sprains, broken bones, shock and other first aid emergency techniques, also they would be able to do Adult CPR using AED

HEART SAVER

First Aid CPR AED

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY

COURSE OUTLINE

Theoretical Content

- Basic Understanding of First Aid CPR AED
- Knowing the responsibilities and liabilities
- Importance of victim and rescuer safety
- Knowing when to call for help
- To look for problems in the order of importance
- Privacy protection and making the report

Practical Content

- Giving first aid to common medical emergencies
- Giving first aid to various emergency injuries
- Giving first aid to various environmental injuries
- Giving CPR to adult, children and infants
- Practice using an AED

Approvals

MOL Bahrain | Tamkeen

Accreditations

American Heart Association

01

Who Should Attend

Employees, Technicians, Supervisors, Managers, OHS professionals

02

Assessment Methods

Interactive group discussion, individual activities, practicals and exercises

03

Assessment Criteria

Candidates should know how to conduct CPR and helping a coked person. They should also know how to properly use an AED machine

Course Duration

— 1-2 Days —

Certificate & License valid for 2 years

CONTACT US:

Email: info@ricionline.com

Phone: +973 17001595

Website: www.ricionline.com

